FAITH AND IMAGINATION

AN INVITATION TO PRACTICE THEOPOETICS

Led by Gene Bradbury

Recognizing the limits of logic, theopoetics accepts the parables of life and begins to see life as a mystery. As theopoets we return to sacred stories and symbols.

A sign-up sheet is available in the narthex, or by calling the church office, so we can prepare adequate class materials.

See the advertisement on the narthex table for a more in-depth synopsis.

WEDNESDAY EVENINGS BEGIN

Every Member A Learner

OPPORTUNITIES TO BE INVOLVED:

JOIN: Join other members at DVLC and invite your neighbors and friends to attend classes. Classes always open to all in our community.

COMMIT: Make a commitment to attend at least one adult education class this year!

CHOOSE: As always there are a variety of classes offered this year to make education interesting. It begins with you. Choose from the many selections offered in this brochure and decide on one or more that is right for you.

LEAD: DVLC is committed to offering a wide array of adult education classes through-out the year. We invite others to be leaders and teachers. If you are interested in leading a class please contact Paul Wessel, or Jan Webb.

Additional classes may be added during the season as interest arises.

God & Human Suffering

God and human suffering do fit in the same sentence. This class will look at God and human suffering through discussion of the book God and Human Suffering by John Hall

The last 2 classes will use the book, When Bad Things Happen to Good People, by Harold Kushner.

*Pick up a course outline for suggested chapter reading prior to classes.

Both books will be available at the church, cost, by suggested donation, will be listed.

Led by Sherry Wright
